

Five key messages

1.

Talk to your baby right from the start. Babies love to hear your voice and see your face when you talk to them.

2.

Talking to your baby is really important because they learn most things from you.

3.

Talking will help your child to be happy, make friends and learn.

5.

Music, noisy video games and the TV are a big part of our lives, but try to make some noise-free time so that your baby can hear what you are saying.

4.

Talking is easy – just chat about what you are doing or what they are interested in.
